THE SUNDAY ORDINANCE .- Mayor Bishop has caused the Chief of Police to enforce the ordinance passed 29th May, 1857, declaring it unlawful for any keeper of a house of entertainment, beer house, or drug store, to sell or give away, upon Sunday, or suffer to be drank on the premises, ale, beer, porter, or any fermented or spirituous liquors. The fine for a violation to be not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars. It will prove a difficult effort for a policeman to testify to what an offender actually drank, and the effort will, for that cause, no doubt fail.

man of Engine No. 8, on the Ohfo and Mississippi Railroad, were engaged in shifting cars at Storrs' Station, opposite the Two Mile House, a lad named Antonia Longinetto, an Italian by birth, jumped upon the tender for the purpose, perhaps, of taking a free ride. The Engine had passed the Water-station, was switched on to another track, and reversed, when Longinetto lost his balance and fell under the tender, three wheels of which passed over the lower part of his body, severing both legs and otherwise mangling his person. He was conveyed to the Company's blacksmith shop, near by, where he died about two o'clock. Coroner

Cary was immediately sent for, and an inquest was held, which resulted in a verdiet of death by carelessness on the part of deceased. It was also found that no blame whatever could be attached to the Engineer and Fireman, or any one connected with the road. The father of the deceased arrived at the spot during the Coroner's inquest, and recognized the body as that of his son. He stated that he arrived in this city three days ago, in company with two sous; that he left, at Piedmont, a wife and four daughters, and came to America for the purpose of seeking alms. The body was taken charge of by the officers of the Ohio and Mississippi Raifroad, and will be interred to-day at the expense of the Company.

Tun special interest in the Benefit given, last night, at the National Theater to its formor manager, Mr. Sarzedas, was in the second appearance and signal success of a young and handsome debutante, who has deeply interested a large circle of friends by her sudden devotion to the drams. The difficult part of Julia in the Hunchback was rendered on this occasion with such faithfulness as to obtain the reward of abundant applause, and a lap full of boquets. She was vociferously called before the curtain. The venture a lady of 19 years, has made, with but little experience even in front of a stage, with scarce three months special preparation, is admitted to have been great, but the promise already given betokened capacity and spirit which will command success. Mr. Lotze was on his way to bed, and thinking every thing right, failed to strike a light, but unfortunately the hatchway had been left open. Barbet, Spedden and Carpenter; Master, Chester Hatfield. Lieut. Stanley has been ordered to the com-

Lieut, Geo. W. Rodgers has been ordered to ordnance duty at the New York Navy-yard.
The ordering of more efficient naval force to the African coast, was not in consequence of any late complaint by the British government. It was long ago contemplated but, until recently, there were no vessels which could be used for that purpose. So far as our government is aware, no new orders have been issued since 1842 by the British government in connection. with the treaty stipulations, for the suppression of the slave trade on the coast of Africa.

There is nothing in the recently received let-ters to a distinguished General in Washington, which affords any grounds for the belief that England will become involved in the present war in Europe. It is understood that the Cabinet, to-day, finally acted on the document they have for several weeks bad under consideration, expressive of the views of the administration on the subject of neutral rights. It will probably be transmitted to Mr. Dallas by the next steamer.

STABBING AFFAIR HUBBED UP .- About 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon a woman dressed in white, wearing a green sun-bonnet, was seen to go to S. B. Grone's drug-store, on Mor-gan street, and call out a man who was stand-ing inside. Some words passed between them, when the woman plunged a knife into the man, wiped the blood from the blade on her sleeve, and walked off. Inquiries at the place of the and walked off. Inquiries at the place of the occurrence failed to develope any more of the matter than above, as those who knew all about it refused to communicate any informa-tion relative thereto.—St. Louis Republican, 17th inet.

Special Correspondence of Daily Press.]

This morning, at about 2 o'clock, Mayor Haines, in a brief speech, bade the Queen City functionaries a hearty welcome, to which Mr. Eggleston replied, in part, speaking of Railroads in particular, and then gave way for Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, who made a very agreeable and eloquent speech to a large number of citizens, atraugers and guests that had by this time collected in front of the Tremont, welcoming the excursionists, &c. His speech was as slightly tinctured with political compound as his predominating spirit could possibly allow. After which the people dispersed as per programme, or otherwise, as best suited their inclinations. The committee had fixed up several kinds of aports, regetta race, shooting match, etc., for the gay to induige in. No doubt a full delegation to each department. doubt a full delegation to each department. The steamer Planet departed on a moon-light excursion trip at about four o'clock, with a perfect jam of passengers. Their departure from the wharf was rendered selembly sublime by the rich discourse of concordant sounds from Menter's band, which issues no rigtes liable to discount. The return of the Planet and passengers gave a different aspect to the picture. Though the intention was good, the result was a sore disappointment and a bore. The crowd was so great, and a free indulgence of something else generally provocative of dis-cord, made the trip still more unpleasant Congratulations were rife among those who didn't go.

To-morrow a large number avail themselves of the EXTENDED invitation to visit Milwaukie, and no doubt much pleasure is anticipated in the trip, of which hereafter.

the trip, of which hereafter.

It is understood that the invitation cards are to be acknowledged and honored by the Illinois Central, Ohio and Mississippi, and, in fact, all the Railroads diverging from this point, so that visitors will find it very convenient to return to their several homes by differont routes, as suit their purposes.

The invitation to visit McVicker's Theater, to see the Bayel Troupe, was taken advantage of by a goodly number, and a full house was the result—performance excellent. We make mention of the Briggs house, and recommend it to public patronage. More anon.

Yours, CULBERTSON.

PATRICK HENRIEY for assaulting, with intent to kill, a man named Miller, clerk of Heintz Brenery, will have a hearing before Judge Lowe next Tuesday. Up to a late hour inst evening, Miller was not expected to live.

COLUMBUS NEWS.

COLUMBUS, June 17, 1859. VERY wise persons who have "watched the wheat crop for ever so long," cease to roak about the failure this sesson, as the fact is established, beyond doubt, that in central Ohio, and capecially throughout the Scioto Valley, the yield of wheat will be greater in amount, and better in quality, than that afforded by the crop of last year. The reason is that so much of the wheat as is uninjured is of a superior quality, and they so number of acres in wheat, in the localities above mentioned, is much greater than in any former year. The farmers in Pickaway county have been harvesting, and say that the yield will be a good one; and a committee of the Ross county Agricultural Society having examined the wheat fields, all along the river, report favorably for an abundance. FLOUR is selling at $8 50 per barrel. The millers furnish us no reports, being unable to do so from the small amount of business done. A CHILD FOUND IN A PRIVY, Yesterday of . O W ternoon a little colored girl named Mary Bond was missed from the residence of her parents, on Rich street, between Sixth and Seventh. A search of three or four hours resulted in the discovery of her remains in a privy vault at the rear of the premises, where she had probably fallen through the loose planks in the floor, which were so arranged that after letting the child through they would spring back to original position. The verdiet of the Coroner's jury was in accordance with the facts. Ox Wednesday night last, the police found a little boy wandering about the street, homeless, and placed him in the Station-house until yesterday, when he was taken to the Infirmary. He is an intelligent, clever little fellow, an orphan, and formerly resided with his parents in St. Mary's, Auglaize county. Any person wishing to adopt a fine healthy boy, will do well-to call on Dr. Moeller, who is anxious to procure a home for the orphan. COMPTROLLER of the Treasury, Judge Thrall, has drawn on the County Treasurers for about $400,000, which will be expended toward defraying the expenses of the July interest on the foreign debt. The remark has been heard on A issuing from various quarters that the State will fail in meeting this semi-annual payment. but if the taxes are not very slow in coming in, there will be no difficulty in making the payment. MR. FRANK SESSIONS, of this city, informs us that he has purchased about one hundred and fifty thousand pounds of wool at prices ranging from thirty to forty-five and fifty cents. direct A large quantity of a fine article will probably be stored, as speculators and manufacturers are unwilling to pay the prices asked by growers.
